

International dinner

The 2nd Cohort of the Bioceb students are integrating through several extra-curricular activities.

Since the beginning of their semester in the beautiful city of Reims, the group has held Intercultural Cooking Nights. The goal of the cooking nights was to appreciate and embrace each other through gastronomy.

The cooking nights helped students discover foods like Gari fotor(Ghana), Khoresh bademjan (Iran), Spanish omelettes (Europe), Ceviche (South America), Chicken and Mushroom adobo(SouthEast Asian), Potato curry and Black Chicken curry(Sri Lanka), Butter Chicken and Sheera (India) and Chilaquiles and Molletes, Tinga, Cochinita pibil and arroz con leche (Mexico).

A quick summary of this incredible dinners

Trip to Verzy!

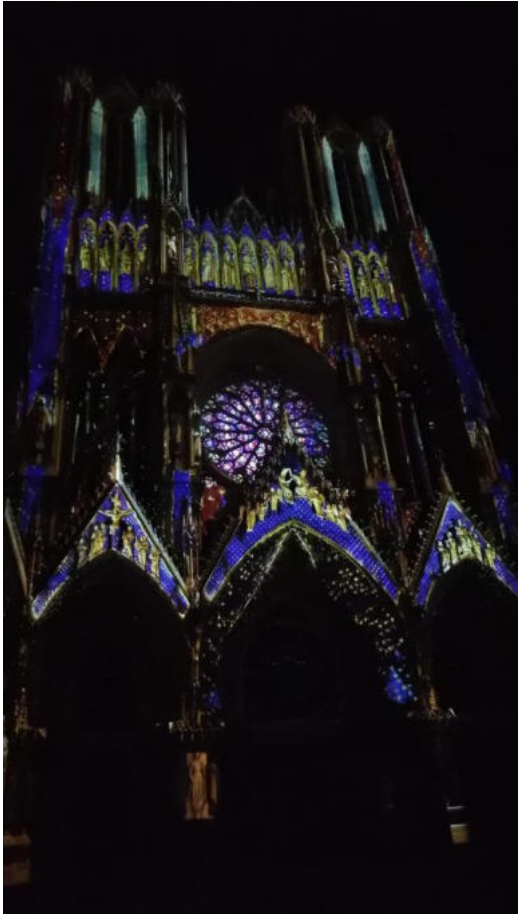

- Bioceb students exploring the local biodiversity on a trip to see the “Faux the Verzy”.

Trip to... Luxembourg!

In their quest to discover more about Europe, students of the 2nd cohort visited Luxembourg, 3 hours away from Reims. The students experienced a part of the diversity of Europe and enjoyed the beautiful landscapes of the country.

A Little bit of Reims

Light show at the cathedral

Roof top of the cathedral

Grand Quizz

Volleyball at Champagne's park

Birthday celebrations

- “la mordida” originally from Mexico our must in birthday parties. The cake is smashed in the birthday’s person face!